15th, Friedland:

(To the Empress.) I write only a line, as I am very tired; I have been bivouacking a good many days on end. My children have worthily celebrated the anniversary of Marengo; the battle of Friedland will be equally famous and glorious for my people. The whole Russian army is routed; 80 guns, 80,000 men captured or killed; %5 Rus-sian generals killed, wounded, or prisoners; the Russian Guard smashed; — it is a worthy sister of Marengo, Austerlitz, Jena. The bulletin will tell you the rest. My losses are not heavy; I outmanoeuvred the enemy. Good-bye, dear friend, I am just getting into the saddle.

18th, Skaisglrren:

My headquarters are here. I intend to march on Tilsit, and to engage, the enemy should they have the impudence to stand their ground.

10th, Tilsit:

My health 5s good; the army is superb.

A curious incident which made the soldiers laugh, occurred for the first time near Tilsit; we met a horde ol Kalmucks, who fought with bows and arrows.

£0th. I control the Niernen. I shall probably conclude an armistice this evening.

22d. An armistice ha« been signed.

(To the Grand Army,) Soldiers I On the 5th of June the RuMian army attacked us in our cantonments. The enemy had mistaken the reason for our inactivity. They discovered too late that our slumber wan that of the lion.
